ALL-STAR TEAM

Make the Call. Get the Test. Join the NBA Stars.

The first 1,000 men who get tested for prostate or colon cancer will be invited to join a cast of NBA all-stars at the second annual Harlem Men All-Stars Evening.

If you're 45 or older and living in or near Harlem, make the call, get the test, and join NBA stars at this special celebration.

These low-cost tests can save your life by catching a problem early. You may qualify for free testing.
